

Give yourself credit.

Get a $10,000 credit for buying now!

The government tax credit may be gone, but at Lowder New Homes we're giving you a different kind of credit. It's worth $10,000! That's a lot better than the $8,000 credit Uncle Sam doled out. How do you get it? Just buy a new home from us or have us build one for you. And we'll give you a $10,000 credit* toward a variety of luxury upgrades. Upgrade packages vary with each home and include such things as granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, beautiful hardwood floors and more. For full details visit a Lowder Model
